Girl Scout Cadette Troop Has Busy Saturday

Albany Cadette Girl Scout troop 1094 and their leader, Mrs. Lee Keck, spent a busy Saturday, Dec. 7, visiting the tree they had made and donated for the Children's Hospital Medical Center Festival of Christmas Trees at Hotel Claremont and entertaining foreign children at a Christmas party.

The tree, a stylized wooden, tinsel-outlined version of an old-fashioned tree was trimmed with 60 ornaments of baker's clay made and painted by the girls. Decorations included angels, snowmen, trees, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus and other ornaments. It had been priced at $40.

After the visit to the Tree Festival, the 21 uniformed girls went to the University of California Faculty Wives club's annual Christmas party for children of foreign students at International House on the campus.

The Albany group had been invited to assist at the party and each had baked and decorated a dozen Christmas cookies as special refreshments.

After their arrival and briefing, they went to the balcony above the lobby to sing Christmas carols as the wide-eyed youngsters entered the fireplace lobby, where a 25-foot decorated Christmas tree stood. Cadette Scouts joined the children in the lobby, sang more carols and helped call attention to Santa Claus when he appeared on the balcony.

The party adjourned to the auditorium, with each Scout in charge of several children, whom they took to the stage where all foreign children received gifts made by Faculty Wives.

Small children received big floppy stuffed dogs; older children, pencil cases full of pens and pencils, and babies, Christmas bibs.

The Albany group returned home about 5:30 p.m., thoroughly delighted with their service project.

Holiday Matinees For Children

The five Albany PTA units will sponsor two morning "matinees" for elementary school children during the Christmas vacation on Dec. 24 and Jan. 3. Doors will open at 9:15. Donations of 25 cents will be taken at the door for each performance.

AHS GIRLS WORK ON RED CROSS TOY PROJECT

Terri Chinn and Marty Chandler of Albany High school are co-chairmen this year of the annual Red Cross Youth drive to collect new and used toys for underprivileged children. They are asking those with toys to share to bring them to the Berkeley chapter, American Red Cross, 2116 Allston Way, or to phone 845-1430 for a pick-up.

Toys will be put in "mint condition" by Red Cross Youth members from local high schools and distributed through their "Santa's Toy Shop" the week before Christmas. For this event the donated toys will be attractively displayed on tables at the Red Cross, and needy families of servicemen and others referred by welfare agencies will be invited to come in and select free gifts suitable for their children. Youth members will gift wrap the articles and provide baby sitting services for their "customers," but there will be no price tags—everything is "for free."

Also planned by the RCY High School Council, of which Terri Chinn is secretary, is a Christmas party on Dec. 12 for children from the California School for the Blind. Fifty blind youngsters will be hosted at a "sound party" featuring the joyous sounds of Christmas—caroling, sleigh bells

The Jay Vee family of fine liquors ... the happy label!

Here's the Jay Vee Label Story

When we decided to offer our customers liquors under our own label, we decided we would do so only as we were able to find liquors which would be not only lower in price than nationally advertised brands, but also of a quality we could be proud of. Gradually we have added additional kinds until we have quite a wide selection of liquors we know our customers will enjoy. Quality control and uniformity has been our goal ... and we think we have succeeded in bringing you a fine selection at very reasonable prices.

Plan Ahead for Holiday Phone Calls to Vietnam

Families who have relatives stationed in Vietnam have been advised by Pacific Telephone to plan ahead if they wish to talk with them during the holiday season.

"In most instances it is easier for a serviceman to call home than for his family to try reaching him in Vietnam," explained G. R. Stockberger, Pacific Telephone's Berkeley district manager. "That is why servicemen are encouraged to notify their families in advance if they expect to telephone home, particularly during the holidays."

Stockberger said that more than 38,000 calls were completed between the United States and Vietnam last year, four and a half times as many as in 1965. He said more success was experienced in completing calls from Vietnam because of the difficulty encountered in locating servicemen on calls to Vietnam.

"Every effort is made to locate the serviceman when a call is received in Saigon," Stockberger explained, "but, because of travel restrictions and curfews imposed in Saigon in the past, we have found it is much more practical for the serviceman to place the call when he is able to do so."

On calls to Vietnam, he said, it is important for the caller to have the serviceman's unit, his APO number and, if possible, a telephone number where he can be reached. He said the speed with which the call goes through depends on the number of calls pending at the time and the serviceman's availability.

"On the other hand," he continued, "calls originating in Vietnam are handled on a first-come, first-served basis at various telephone centers established for servicemen. Once a serviceman places his call, it's just a matter of minutes before it is completed."

Stockberger said Pacific's parent company, American Telephone and Telegraph Company, has asked the Federal Communications Commission to reduce the cost of calls to and from Vietnam by introducing station-to-station calling. Savings to U.S. customers would be about $121,000 annually.

If approved, the new rate, effective Dec. 1, would be $9 for the first three minutes on a station call with a $3 charge for each additional minute. Person-to-person rates would remain the same—$12 for the first three minutes—but each additional minute would be lowered from $4 to $3.

ON CUNNINGHAM

Hospital Corpsman First Class James D. Merrill, USN, 27, son of Mrs. Stella Merrill of 1038 Solano Ave., Albany, returned to Long Beach, Calif., aboard the destroyer USS Alfred A. Cunningham after six months in the Western Pacific. During two tours of duty in the Tonkin Gulf, the destroyer acted as plane guard for five different attack aircraft carriers, and on July 4th rescued a downed pilot from the carrier USS Ticonderoga. In mid-September the ship used its guns in support of the Army's 101st Airborne Division, and for 10 days patrolled the coast of Vietnam. In early October the destroyer left its berth at Kaohsiung, Taiwan, and aided a Panamanian merchant vessel stricken by typhoon Elaine. The swift location and recovery of the then abandoned ship brought a "well done" from the Commander of the U.S. Seventh Fleet.

LOCAL MAN HONORED IN BUS DRIVER TRIBUTE

Bus drivers in East Bay communities said their own goodbyes to the veteran of them all Dec. 5, when they turned their headlights on for one minute in honor of James L. Viguer, 81, oldest AC Transit employee in years and point of service.

It was the first time in memory that headlights beamed simultaneously in tribute to a transportation worker who was a legend in his own time. Viguer, of 975 Tulare Ave., Berkeley, died Dec. 2. He had been on the job over 61 years when he was taken ill July 22. He officially retired Dec. 1.

The district's two-way radio system was used to signal drivers at 9:30 a.m. and lights clicked on as buses traveled throughout Alameda and West Contra Costa counties and on the bridge to and from San Francisco. At the same time, a Requiem Mass for Viguer began at St. Mary Magdalen Church in Berkeley.

Transportation manager D. J. Potter, who announced the tribute could remember only one other occasion of similar respect.

In September, 1936, as the Lurline sailed into San Francisco Bay with the ashes of his father, the late James P. Potter, first superintendent of the Key-Sys-

The Mail Bag

(Opinions expressed in Letters to the Editor are those of the writers and not necessarily those of the Times. This newspaper reserves the right to edit letters to suit space limitations or to eliminate material which might be considered libelous.)

Editor, the Times:

This letter was started in Reno in the hope of bringing relief and happiness to tired housewives. Unlike most chain letters, this does not cost any money. Simply send a copy of this letter to five (5) of your housewife friends who are equally tired. Then bundle up your husband and send him to the woman whose name appears at the top of the list and add your name to the bottom of it.

When your name comes to the top of the list you will receive 16,378 men and some of them will be dandies.

Have faith—don't break the chain.

One woman broke the chain and got her old man back.

Sincerely,

A Tired Housewife.

P.S. At this date of writing, a friend of mine has received 356 men. They buried her yesterday, and everyone said she had a smile on her face, for the first time in years.

(Ed. Note—Most Letters to the Editor are serious. This one produced smiles around the office, so we thought you readers might enjoy it too.)

The catered Thanksgiving dinner served at the Center was socially and gastronomically a success. Cecelia Chilton, chairman, says she heard not a "dissenting word" about it.

The business meeting was held Tuesday, Dec. 3. All reports were read and approved. Refreshments were donated by Del Wisenor. A committee consisting of Herb Healy, George Edlefsen and "Tiny" Kampe was named to investigate and report on the feasibility of installing acoustical tile in the meeting room at the Center for soundproofing purposes.

Robert Florian of the Social Security administration visited the Center Dec. 10 to offer help to anyone who needed it in filling out Medicare forms.
